Key Areas of Support

The Foundation aims to establish a stable funding source that will support projects related to:

Support for pastoral resources: Pastoral ministers play a leading role in our churches, and our communities where we live out our faith. To promote the well-being of people at various stages of their lives, there is an urgent need to develop new tools that take advantage of technology advancements to support pastoral ministers in their mission.

Supporting community involvement in our parishes: In every community you will find motivated individuals and teams of dedicated volunteers. To promote solidarity and justice, the necessary resources are urgently needed to ensure that those who are mobilizing to make a difference in our communities have the resources necessary.

Supporting the diocese's 2023-2024 pastoral priorities:

Care for seniors: Social isolation can have a profound impact on a person in all areas of one's life. Helping older adults facing social isolation and providing access to care and resources is crucial to ensuring people feel connected, engaged, and live more fulfilled lives. An intergenerational and intercultural approach will be used to develop programming that is suitable to varying needs.

Support for families and young people: With the end of sacramentalization and deconfessionalization in the school system, families and parishes now play a major role in the introduction of children to Christian life. Young families, especially immigrant families, or vulnerable families, need to feel welcomed, supported and thoughtfully integrated into our communities.

Reconciliation with aboriginal communities: This is a vital initiative. By listening, we seek to foster relationships that are rooted in trust as we learn to walk side by side in a new path. To promote healing and reconciliation initiatives, the Novatio Foundation supports the Archdiocese of Gatineau, in its pledged commitment of $100,000 over five years to the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops' $30-million fundraising campaign.

The Novatio Foundation, a source of renewed energy in our communities of faith.

A dream in the making!

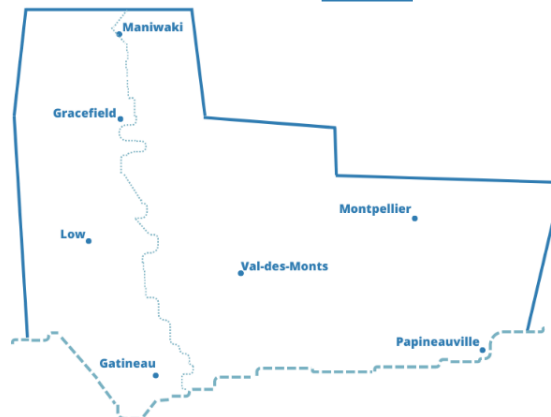

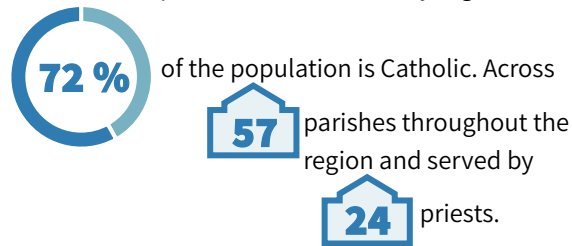

I dream of a church that makes a difference in this world, of Christian communities that contribute to the fulfillment of all men and women in their communities. Novatio allows us to put flesh on this dream.

Archbishop of Gatineau
